

Inspirational Women Conference

Tuesday 7th February 2012
University of Chester,
Riverside buildings

Back by popular demand!

Following the success of last year's conference and taking place as part of the University of Chester's 7th annual Diversity Festival, this exciting event will celebrate inspirational women and provide advice for motivated women who want to be successful and further develop their careers.

The event will include keynote lecturers and workshops on

- Finding and making the most of opportunities
- Getting the best from your team
- Gaining credibility
- And more!

Designed for female staff, students and visitors, this is an event not to be missed!

The event is FREE but places are limited, contact equality@chester.ac.uk to book your place today

University of Chester

Inspirational Women Conference

Programme

Time	Speaker	Event
9.30am		Welcome and introduction to the day
10.00am	Dr Sylvia Sham, Director of Wai Yin Chinese Women Society	Keynote address: Yes! I can do it!
10.30am	Ruth Gould, CEO at DaDa [formerly North West Disability Arts Forum]:	Keynote address: If opportunity doesn't knock, build a door – establishing DaDaFest
11.00am		Tea and Coffee
11.30am	Fajer Rabia, Managing Director of Inspired Sisters	Keynote address:
12.00pm	Jennie Johnson, Co-Founder and CEO of Kids Allowed	Keynote address: From an idea to a market leader and the obstacles in-between.
12.45pm	Lunch
1.30pm 2.30pm	Workshop rotation 1 Workshop rotation 2	Interactive workshops delivered by the above speakers as well as Krista Powell Edwards, Director of Humanistics Ltd and Hannah Paterson, Welfare Officer at Manchester Students Union. Full details will be emailed to you to choose the workshops you wish to attend once you have booked your place.
3.30pm	Plenary
4.00pm	Close

